

Are all children immunized and are parents required to show proof?

What is the director's educational background?

What's the educational level of teachers? Do they undergo any child development training?

If my child is extremely distressed and crying, how will you handle that?

What will my child's daily schedule look like?

How do providers handle potty-training or potty accidents?

If I'm working on teaching a behavior at home, will daycare providers support and reinforce it?

What kind of snacks and meals are served? What if I want to bring food from home for my child's meals?